So who is this guy anyway?

Sid gave his first presentation on February 8th, 1970 and has been teaching the art of “What to Say & How to Say It” and sharing his “5 STEPS method ever since! He lectures throughout the United States and Canada to a wide variety of professional, corporate, academic, and civic groups. He combines his powerful message, humor, and insight with an entertaining twist, creating a dynamic learning experience that transforms the way people relate to themselves and others! He will have you laughing and learning at the same time! Sid is a published author and humorist who does make a difference!

Sid will show you how to Smile, Laugh, and Have Fun with customers, fellow employees, and even those you live with!

I am available for in-house seminars, keynotes, workshops, employee meetings, and consulting too!
